

writing of sound and perfect mind and memory as you doe knowe or believe for at what time or times was he otherwise was the elony or paynes of death upon him and did he not read or take hold of all the time of giving the said Instructions what Interlocutory words did he use at the time of giving the said Instructions how long before his death was it he gave the said instructions whether were the said Instructions put into the form of a will and read unto the said John Doery and by him approved of in his life time and what distance of time was there between giving the said instructions and writing the said draught or last the Truth herein.

From. Did not the said John Doery in and by the said instructions order you at first to nominate only Edmund Doery and Owen Quigley Exors. without naming or intending the said John Quigley an Exor. at first as you could perceive how came the said John Quigley afterwards to be named one of the Exors. of the said John Doery was his name interlined in the instructions and was not the said John Quigley named Exor. by the said Doery at the importunity and solicitous Request and other persuasions of Edmund Dormott and what words or to what effect did the said Edmund Dormott use to the said John Doery for that purpose and what words or expressions did the said John Doery use and in what maner did he speak them when the said Doery gave way or consented to have John Quigley put down for an Exor. was the said John Doery of sound mind and memory at the same time when John Quigleys name was ordered or agreed to be put in as Exor. to his Will as you verily believe or did he the said John Doery read and take hold immediately before or after & when he read the truth herein.

From. Which name was intended to be inserted in the space or blank left in the draught of the will for overseer was not the said John Quigley intended by the said John Doery for overseer of the said will or who else Declare the Truth herein.

Mr. Rusby of Dept

Cross interrogatories heretofore administered to Edmund Dormott and Richard Dalton witnesses produced of behalfe of John Quigley concerning the last will and Testament of John Doery deceased for and on the behalfe of several Beneficiaries of the said John Doery before the Judge for probate of wills Imprimis Were you present in company with John Doery the day of his death were you with him when he dyed and how long were you with him Did he voluntarily desire any person and whom to goe or send for Nicholas Spaynter to write his will or did any person move him to it and who did he the said John Doery give instructions to the said Nicholas Spaynter concerning his will in your hearing and what were the said instructions were they immediately put into writing from the mouth of the said Doery and were the same or any draught of a will drew read to and approved of by the said John Doery in his life time.