

d. d. 283

for about a week or month that the said Doory died the said Doory in the evening the fourth or third day of December 1678 in the house of the said Doory

To the second and third interrogatory says that M<sup>r</sup>. Doory sent your deponent for M<sup>r</sup>. Paynter to make the said Doory's will that when M<sup>r</sup>. Paynter found Doory gave M<sup>r</sup>. Paynter instructions to make his will in terms following that is to say will give my estate to my sister Ellinor Doory and my brother Owen Quigley and after some story or persuasion put in mind by M<sup>r</sup>. Dormont to his brother John Quigley to be equally divided between them that Doory was according to the best of your deponents judgement in sound memory when he gave M<sup>r</sup>. Paynter instructions to draw the said will.

4th

To the fourth cannot depose.
The Examination of Richard Dalton to the said interrogatory as aforegoing.

To the first says that your deponent was to the said Doory the day of his death but not when he dyed that the said Doory sent your deponent for Nicholas Paynter to draw his will. that no person proved the said Doory's will as your deponent knows of that the said Doory gave instructions to M<sup>r</sup>. Paynter to draw his will and that he ordered his estate to be divided between his sister Ellinor Doory Owen Quigley and after some story being put in mind of M<sup>r</sup>. Quigley by Dormont the said Doory's will put in my charge Quigley for a share that the said M<sup>r</sup>. Paynter went immediately to write the said will but that there was no will read to the said Doory as your deponent knows of.

2

To the second that the said Doory was of sound memory when he gave M<sup>r</sup>. Paynter instructions and that the said Doory spake no self words as your deponent heard that the said Doory gave no intermentary words as your deponent heard that the Doory ordered M<sup>r</sup>. Paynter to set down Ellinor Doory and Owen Quigley for his heirs and after some pause John Quigley that the said John Quigley was put in of the said and request of Edmund Dormont.

3

To the third that John Quigley was not named as overseer of the said will as your deponent heard.

The Court adjourned till to morning next of the next At a Court of Delegates held at St. Marys the City of St. Marys upon the thirtieth day of October being Wednesday in the third year of the Dominion of the Right Hon<sup>ble</sup>. Charles D. Esq. 1678 Present Coll. Baker Brooks Esq. Coll. Henry Cuffey Esq. Maj.
Benjamin Kozz Esq.

Then came Elizabeth Manning before the Court of Delegates according to process to her directed.

Interrogatory heretofore administered to witness Doory on the behalf of Robert Trauboringer Esq. Administrator of the goods Chattels of John Doory deceased to the effect of John Quigley of Virginia merchant touching the pretended will of John Doory before the Hon<sup>ble</sup>. the Judge for probate of wills &c.

Injunctis

Were you present and in company with the said John Doory on the day of his death and how long were you with him ded