The Examination of Elizabeth Manning aged 40 and thirty years of years abouts sworn upon the holy Evangelists to say the truth to the first Interrogatory faith.

That your deponent was present to the said John Doory upon the day of his death and about three or four hours that Doory desired your deponent to give him that what did you fall it that what did you fall it is your deponent did not at first understand but afterwards thought it might of his will and asked him what is it M<sup>r</sup>. Doory your will that you want and he said yet that that my will, that after your deponent had asked him as aforesaid M<sup>r</sup>. Doory sent for M<sup>r</sup>. Paynter who then was present M<sup>r</sup>. Dermott put your deponent and his hand out of the room and we were not out about half an hour when Dermott came to me and desired me to come in again for Doory was dying that he was in no agony when your deponent went out of the room. but when your deponent returned he was in an agony and spoke no word.
