

Supp: And afterwards the Deft did at the Request of the Couper Deliver the said Couper back againe, & the said Couper did pay unto the said Deft at his own Charge Eight thousand of Tobacco containing Neare Three thousand Eight hundred & twenty pounds of Tobacco, and also foure hogheads more at our Charges. Containing Neare Two thousand twenty eight Counds of Tobacco and Three hogheads of Tobacco more at Richard Freemant Waighing that Two thousand five hundred and two pounds of Tobacco, and some short time afterwards the Couper came to the Deft & acquainted him that his Land whereon he then lived had bene Granted to the Duke of the Lord Proprietary and hee had purchased the same againe of his Lopp for the sum of Eighteen thousand pound of Tobacco, and that there was then due to his Lopp the sum of Seven thousand Nine hundred and fifty Counds of Tobacco, and that hee was afraid his Lopp would not Confrim the sale to him wth out hee w<sup>ch</sup> he paid the said Tobacco, and told the said Deft that hee had no way to paye the said sume and otherd that hee stood indebted both to the Sheriff for Rent and Lease & to an other person, unless the Deft did doe him the Kindnesse to assist him, and the said Couper did Importunately desire the Deft to lend him the Tobacco, & did promise the Deft honestly to repay him what hee should disburse and lend him and pay him any Interests that hee should desire for the Loan hereof and make him over his Land for security, & that as hee owed to an other Tobacco who had bid him hee desired the Deft to be Attorney for him to defend him in those actions which hee could dispute with them, and for that hee had had sume of Tobacco due and owing to him from several persons w<sup>ch</sup> hee could not get in without first hee desired the Deft to be his Attorney to sue the said persons his Debts in ord to the Recovery his Just due, so that thereby hee might be the better Enabled both to pay the Deft what hee already owed him & also what hee should owe him hereafter as well for what hee should Disburse and pay for him as also for his fee in Managing and Transacting his business as his Attorney in the said County of Calverts County aforesaid, And the Deft having had Long acquaintance wth the Couper.
