

The Neale Produce of the said part of the said wine. And with of General Justice he concluded his Answer; And whereas ^{that is to say} Hitherto in the said February Court in the said year One Thousand six hundred sixty nine the said James Neale did Exhibit his Crosse Bill into this Court against the said John Balloy thereby setting forth to the same effect as in the said Answer is above recited and to have a Discovery of the said Neale's and page's by him in the said Answer and in this Bill pretended to be Carelessly left in his Chamber and by Accident lost or come to the Defendant's hands. And to have the Defendant Balloy Answer. He also prayed the Ayde of this Court & Proesse against the said Defendant to appear and Answer the said Bill. which being so Granted the said Defendant appeared and Answered accordingly. And by his Answer Denied the whole Equity of the said Bill: To which said severall Answers of the said severall Defendants the said severall Comptrols Replyed. And the said John Balloy by his Replyation did set forth as in his answer to the said Neale's Bill he says already declared And so the matter being at full and perfect Issue Divers witnesses were Examined in the said Causes and the Depositions duly published according to the laudable Rules of this Court as by the said severall Bills, Answers, Replyations Examination of witnesses and other Proceedings thereupon had All of them Remaining of Record in this Hon^{ble} Court Relation being thereunto had more fully and more at large the same done and may appear. And the said severall Causes standing at Issue Ready for a Hearing the Tenth day of December last was appointed for the hearing and Determining thereof On which day the parties Comptrols and Defendants in both these suits being ready for a Tryall in both Causes And because both suits did Relate to one and the same Cause this Court ordered both Causes to come to a Tryall at one time, And the Comptrol Balloy's Bill being Read and Neale's Answer to the same and all proofs and other page's touching that cause. And the Crosse Bill of Neale against Balloy being also Read and all page's concerning that cause and upon Reading the Depositions and proofs taken in the said Causes being all by this Court seriously viewed and Considered and hearing what could be Alleged on either side. This Court was all clearly satisfied that John Balloy the Comptrol was Joint Owner of the Cargo of wine in Question and that the account of sales of the said Cargo made by Neale and in this Court filed should be referred to Auditors to state and Examine the same And this Court did thereby appoint Mr. Thomas Nolley and Mr. Benjamin Roben to Audit state & Examine the same. who were desired to make full Examination into it. and to make Report to this Court how they found it. at the then next Court, that so the Court being fully satisfied in the business might serve & order them as in Conscience & equity they ought.
