

Knowledge the remains of the adjacent Land and Swamp there being no place to the Northward up the River where they could possibly begin to run the course of the said Land without crossing Swamps or Branches which he very well remembers they did not in running the first ~~course~~ ^{course} of the Land called Admirathorea but went the course all the way on plain firm dry depending Ground to the second tree of the said Land being a white oak, and further doth Declare as he hath taken his Oath on the Holy Evangelist That it the very Tree he caused to be bounded for the first bound Tree of the said Tract of Land called Admirathorea being confident in his knowledge of the Ground whereon it stands to be the place of beginning of the afores. Land, he laying his hand on the Tree when he took his Oath before us to the best of his knowledge Memory and Judgment: and as he hoped to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven That to be the very Tree of the beginning of Admirathorea and no other.

Pursuant to a Commission to us directed, and in obedience thereunto We have taken the Oaths of the aforementioned persons whose Names are Subjoyned to each particular Deposition being in Number Thirteen concerning Lands for Coll: Addison as is before Expressed We have hereunto Annexed our hands and Seals, the Day and Year above written

Robert Wade
 M^o Hankins.

Depositions of the Bounds of Charity Land
 for Coll: Holaday filed Apr: 1: 1703

Maryland
 March 20: 170²/₃

By Virtue of a Commission Granted to William Holaday of Prince Georges County out of Her Majesty's High Court of Chancery to us to take the Oath of Coll: Minian Beale or other Evidence as should appear, and him or us to examine upon Oath upon the Holy Evangelist concerning the particular ancient Bounds and Bound Trees of a Tract of Land called Charity or as by the said Commission more at large appears, and this day viz: 20th of March as afores: the afd Coll: Minian Beale aged Seventy Years or thereabouts going with us upon the Land called Charity brought us to a fair marked and bounded Poplar near