Thos. Addison

James Mullikin

Aged forty years or thereabouts being sworn before us upon the Holy Evangelist saith, that he was on the 23^d of June 1697 with Thomas Addison James Williams & Jun. Chapman when James Williams caused Thomas Addison to lay out two hundred acres of Land out of the North East Corner of his Land called Chelvey, when coming to a bounded Hickory w^{ch} was bounded at the Survey of Hugh Dyer's Land called Dyer's Discovery for the North East Corner Tree of the said Chelvey and is Express'd in the Certificate where James Williams refusing to let the said Addison begin at the said Hickory above Express'd to lay out the above two hundred acres of Land; alledging that his Land was bounded at the North East Corner by a Poplar and there upon either bounded himself or caused to be bounded this very poplar on w^{ch} I now lay my hand, and did there in the presence of Jun. Chapman Thomas Addison and my self own and claim that to be the North East bound of his Land called Chelvey, and from thence caused Thomas Addison to proceed and further saith not

James M Mullikin
