 friends & out of the said with the respect in her brother in law Philomon Homslay was prevailed upon to take him in with her on behalf of his Nece then under age to execute the said Will & in and thereunto they got the estate of the said Wm Homslay & appraised & made an equal division of such parts thereof as was then visible & in place the said Jane one of the Compt delivered unto the said Philomon all the books papers bills bonds & other writings relating to the said estate being the said Affinloy & Beplable to recover such debts & was standing out & due to the said estate to them faithfully promising to be accountable to her for the said moiety of all such debts or other part of the said estate as should any way come to her hands. And did further set forth that the said Wm in his lifetime & at the time of his death had indebted unto one John Hyos of the City of London monies in the sum of one hundred & fifty pounds the said moiety whereof ought to have been paid by the said Philomon inasmuch as one moiety of the said estate was bequeathed to comply withall but most unjustly threw the whole burthen of the said debt upon the Compt
