

539 in Compensation for what the said Willson's Eighty five Acres should take in of the said James's Land to convey unto him all her Right in the same Interest Demand or Extension in the remaining part of the said tract called Pascalls purchase not by her disposed of to the said Willson nor to any other and the said James Health making to her reasonable Satisfaction for what the said remaining part should be esteemed worth more than that which the said Eighty five Acres of the said Willson should take in of the said James Land whereupon the said James and the said Susannah came to an agreement that the said James should convey unto the said Willson so much of the said James's own proper Land as the said Eighty five Acres full part within the bounds of the said tract called Pascalls purchase and paying unto the said Susannah the Quantity of three thousand pounds of the same which was agreed to by the said James Health not so much for the value of her Right in the remaining part of Pascalls purchase as for his Compensation of the loss & distresses Relate to which the said Susannah was reduced and the said Susannah should convey unto the said James all her Interest in her said remaining part of Pascalls purchase ~~and~~ pursuant to which the said James has agreed finally to Lett upon and convey to the said Willson so much of his own proper Land as make up the said Willson full Eighty five Acres whereby the said Susannah is made secure from any trouble or molestation which the said Willson might otherwise put her to, and is ready upon demand to pay the said sum so as aforesaid agreed for, and the said Susannah likewise pursuant to the said Agreement has conveyed to the said James Health in due form of Law all her Interest in her remaining part of Pascalls purchase undivided of aforesaid but that the said James the said Susannah's now husband having absented himself so as aforesaid so that he cannot be found to Execute the said Deed in Conjunction with the said Susannah as the Law in such cases requires altho' the Right and property of the said Land is in the said Susannah in her own Right as Devisee of her said first Husband Surick and consequently the said James his title from the said Susannah (notwithstanding the valuable Consideration by him paid for the same and the absolute necessity requiring it as well for the benefit of the said Willson as the Indemnity of the said Susannah may hereafter be disputed called in Question wherefore he prayed that his Deed from the said Susannah be confirmed by the Decree of our high Court of Chancery all which allegations of the said James are by the Answer of the said Susannah therunto acknowledged and allowed to be punctually true as in and by the said Answer filed in our said Court of Chancery it doth more at large appear and forasmuch as it
