She was never sent to Choptanke after She went to Kent for She was brought to Wye Towne and there rotted; She lay some dayes but how many cannot remember; Edward Russell Iheard was a Saylor, but the rest I beleive was not. As for Ralph Stevens one of the Crew is generally very Timerous

To the Severall questions opposed by Mr Nicholas Lowe Richard Bruffe answered upon his Oath as followes
I doe know both Complt and Defendant — She never was sent I beleive She was capable of being Carryed to Choptanke about aweek
Edward Russell was accounted aSaillor and the rest not To the best of my remembrance there was asmall Gust
To the best of my remembrance She did Seeme to be Servinceable While the Pinke man boat lay at Wye Towne before Mr Forbes had her Russell would have had me assisted to Streete her Sailes and rigging Saying that they were pretty good and that apenny might be made of them; but Irefused and they were not Stole All which severall Answers and Depositions as well on behalfe of the Complt as on behalfe of the Defendant were Severally made Oath to before Mr Richard Tilghman by virtue of Commissions granted him for that purpose as aforesaid

Upon which it was ordered that the aforesaid bill and answer be read a gaine and that the foregoeing depositions already published be read which accordingly was read and heard and by the Court fully understood and the agree ments on both sides being fully traversed and debated by theire Councill and fully Argued as well on behalfe of the Complt as the Defendant — The Court here find that the Depositions of the Complt is of great weight and that the Complt ought to have releife in this Honoble Court

Therefore doe order and decree that the Complt be releived against the Defendant under Judgment at law: And pay the said Defendant only for the tyme that the Shallope was actually Servinceable to him at the rate of five pounds tenn Shillings p moneth which appears by the oath of Anthony Rumball one of the Evidences only to be Eight dayes in the Complts Service: and noe more; And it is further

Decreed