

AND then pursuant to a perimory order of this Court the a foregoing Bills and Answer and all the Depositions aforesaid was againe read and heard: And by the Attornies afo fully argued and debated by their pleadings on both sides it is againe Considered by his Ex^{ty} the Keeper and his Associates that the Decree aforesaid given and pass by this Hono: Court on the Seaventh day of May 1705 in favour of the Compt^s be held firme and good to all ends intents and purposes as the same was then given and granted by this Court And it is further Decreed the Defendant Nicholas Lowe pay and satisfy unto the Compt^s Alexander Forbes his moderate and reasonable Cost and Charges by him laid out and expended as well at Common Law: as in this Court of Chancery Amounting to the sume of Thirteen Thousand Forty and two pounds of Law by the Court here Taxed: and allowed of Att a Court of Chancery held at Annapolis the Eleaventh day of May in the Fifth year of the reigne of our Soueraine Lady - Queene Ann ^{the} Anno 9th Julij 1706

Present

His Excellency the Governour Keeper of the Peace William Follen and Justice Saunders Esq: Judges Christen

Alexander Forbes Compt^s
 Robert Smith Defend^t

It appeared Alexander Forbes of Talbot County Messrs by his Attorney Charles Carroll Compt^s: And Robert Smith of the same County Def^t by George Slater his Attorney and this Cause being come to hearing according to order of this Court dated the tenth day of May instanc^t And the Bill of Compt^s Answer and replication being read heard and their Attornies being fully heard and the Depositions of the Witnesses on both sides thoroughly pleaded and debated: and the Court find the full scope of the Compt^s bill appeared to be that overtaine Communica = tion was had and moved by and between the Compt^s Alexander = Forbes and Robert Smith Esq: the aforesaid Defendant of and con = cerning the purchase of Sewall parcels of Land upon Kent Island = which the Compt^s Robert for and in consideration of the sume of two hundred pounds Ster or fifty thousand pounds of Tobacco to him