

Granted or Covenanted to grant, the Land in the said James Heath's Bill mentioned to the said James Heath together with his wife Elizabeth in the month of April 1702 or thereabouts granted to the said Mary and her late Husband Charles Edgerton deceased in full with Warranty to the said Charles against them the said Charles and Elizabeth and against Charles Calvert in the Bill mentioned all claiming by from or under them or any of them, and the said Mary did further testify that her said late husband Charles Edgerton deceased together with her the said Mary sometime after conveyed the said Land to the said James Heath and his heirs and that she had heard that the said James Heath was dubious of his Title to the Land in the Bill mentioned and wanted a release from Charles Calvert Son and Heir of William Calvert Esq: deceased who Covenanted to grant the same to the said Mary Heath James Heath as aforesaid w^{ch} release y^e said James Heath for the affection he bore to his said Daughter though with great pains charge and trouble as the said Mary is informed and to tell the said James Heath at quiet procured a release for the said Charles Calvert to the said James Heath and his heirs with Warranty against the said Charles Calvert and his heirs and all claiming from by or under him but for as much as the said Mary was given to understand that the said Charles Calvert had since the time of the said Deed of release fraudulently and with evil intention Deceit and Guile combined with his Brother Richard Calvert and conveyed him the said Land and the better to colour the same fraud dated the said Deed to the Richard before the said Release made to the said James Heath though as informed really and bona fide made after w^{ch} mentioned the said James Heath to Comence this Suit in the
