

Whereby they made this Debt their own by altering the property and as to William of the obligation mentioned in the said Bill the Defendant doth acknowledge to have delivered the same unto the said Barton; but afterwards being satisfied that what he owed the said Barton was fully satisfied, he Countermanded the payment of the said of the obligation, and this Defendant says that he knows anything of any papers being burnt as in the Bill alluded; neither did he ever Refused to make such Legal Assignment of the said Wobbs obligation as the Compt. Should at any time require or give such power as was necessary for the recovering the Effects of the said obligation; and this Defendant does own that there was in the said Testator life a Communication betwixt them about this Defendants mortgaging his then dwelling plantation for securing such Balance as was due to the Testator but afterwards finding that his wife, dissatisfied therewith she took care to make Satisfaction another way, which he Questions not make appear in this honorable Court, This Defendant does likewise own that Defendant he has heard say and does believe that Humphry Wobb in the Bill mentioned is fled out of this province and as he is Credibly Informed lives now in the Colony of Virginia without that that any other ~~the~~ matter or thing in the said Bill mentioned and not herein before confessed confessed and a voided known and Denied is true and therefore ought in all Equity Justice and Good Conscience to be Allowed in our said Court: Whereupon our <sup>Said</sup> Keeper of our Seals did in our said Court Determine Sentence and Decree that the Defendant in the Bill of Complaint specified shall pay unto the said Complainants as the Estate of Major William Barton deceased the sum of Twenty three pound <sup>and</sup> Eighteen Shillings and five pence Sterling money and two thousand six hundred and seventy pound of Tobacco <sup>1625</sup> of this Soil; We do therefore <sup>1625</sup> command you the said William Seale that to all intents and purposes you performe fullfill and comply with the Tenour of the Decree afo by paying unto the said James Waddock and Sarah his wife Executrix as afo their Execut. <sup>1625</sup> or assigns the afo sum of Twenty three pound Eighteen Shillings and five pence Sterling money and two thousand
