 Christopher Vernon of Ann Arundell County got into thereinto and keeping your oral. out of his Lawfull possession thereof your oral. was advised to bring his Action at Common Law for Recovery thereof and accordingly by Phillip Duwall his Secre brought Trespasse and Ejectment against the Said Vernon but the probate of the Said Knightons will being omitted to be recorded after a boundance of Charge and Trouble was sought and obliged at great Cost Charge to procure an Act of Assembly to confirm the said will after which he again brought Trespasse and Ejectment in the provinciale Court against the Said Vernon who having purchased the other Tract called Marshes Seal from Thomas Knighton the Son and Devisee of y. Said Thomas Knighton the father never regarding the Tenour of the Devise and under which he really purchased used such Artifice and Amusement to the Jury at the Bar to persuade them the bounds of Marshes Seal being said to be the head of & with parkers Branch were naturall & therefore certain whereas in truth not any one Lyno or Course of the said Tract called Marshes Seal really ever Reached to the head of parkers Branch but ran Easterly to Herring Creek Cross a small Draught of the said Branch that they
