 Pursuer of Ignorance better deserve an other Term for so gross an abuse of the Memory of these Defendants Testator the houle Robert Smith Esq<sup>r</sup> late of her Majestys most houle Council of this province these Defendants hewing - hed Purple Information that the bond in the Compl<sup>t</sup>.th Bill mentioned with the Condition whereof that the Compl<sup>t</sup>. and his wife Katherine the Daughter and Sole Heires of Michael paul Vanderfort Should make over to the said Mr. Robert Smith and his Heires all the Lands Descended to her from her said Father was fairly and duly obtained and that she and the Compl<sup>t</sup>. her husband have Refused to do this they well know the full Consideration money of that purchase to have been exactly paid and discharged as those Defendants doubt not to make appear but the Compl<sup>t</sup>. being in possession of those Land now become very valuable and willing to retard and Impede the Defendants prosecution at Common Law has purposely contrived this violations frivolous Scandalous and unnecessary Complaint Wherefore they humbly prayd that upon a full Hearing of the Matters they might be thence dismiss with their reasonable Costs and Charges. Whereupon after the Depositions on both Sides being read and the Arguments and Allegations of both partyes fully heard and Considered, Edward Loy Esq<sup>r</sup> Chancell<sup>r</sup> and Keeper of the Great Seal of Maryland this third day of June 1712 doos in our Said Court Determining Order Sentence and Decree that the Compl<sup>t</sup>. be reldiced against the penalty of the bond in the Bill of Complaint mentioned and that Edmond pryor and Katherine his wife make over unto Anthony Joy and Anna his wife heires at Law to Esq<sup>r</sup> Smith an Estate in good simble of and in one half part of the three several Tracts of Land in dispute lying on the East Side of Caversgs Creek in Queen Annes County with a Speciale Warrant to the same from them and their heirs or any person or persons coming under them or their heirs or any of them which said Lands descend to the said Katherine pryor from her father Michael paul Vanderfort Containing estimation four hundred Acres so that the said Land may be Equally Divided betwixt them as Tenants in Common And that the said Anthony
