

257th Patrick Maggater aged fifty years or thereabouts declares on the holy Evangelist, that about sixteen years since Francis Adams late of Charles County told this Depont that he was with Mr. Richd. Debsa the then Surveyor of Charles County at the taking up of the above said Tract of Land for Mr. Jerome White, and that the said Surveyor ordered said the said Adams, to bound this White Oaks whereon this Depont now lays his hand for the beginning bounded Tree of the above said Tract, and the said Tree stand by a Branch between two Springs and about thirty yards distant from one of the said Springs and about thirty two yards from the other, and that ever since this Depont knows those parts the said Tree was reputed by all that know it to be the beginning bounded Tree of the said Tract of Land called Whites Ford and further saith not.

June 5th 1712

Sworne before . . . . . John Perkins
 Wm. Hanson

Henry Carke's Deposth about a Tract of Land called Stockley

Henry Carke's Deposth about a Tract of Land called Stockley

By Virtue of a Commission out of her Majesty's High Court of Chancery Directed to John Leach and Henry Cox to examine Evidence concerning the bounds of a Tract of Land now in the possession of Henry Carke Esq<sup>r</sup> Hutchins called Stockley; Pursuant therunto we have called before us John Fauman aged Seventy years or thereabouts: He being sworn upon the holy Evangelist coming to a bounded white Oaks standing upon a point at the mouth of Hunting Creek and declared that Eight and forty years agoe or thereabouts that John Fauman John Winnal John Daniel William Allinge (all which said persons were servants upon the plantation of Woodman Stockley before my time) that the afo

How