

Persons did shew the said Jaymen the said bounded Tree & said it was the bounded Tree of Woodman Pokeloy's Land & one Arthur Ludford shewed him the Tree and said it was Pokeloy's bounded Tree and further the said John Jayman doth declare upon oath his standing at a stake now drove into the Ground that he the said Jayman was shewed a bounded Hickory by the said John Hance John Wimal John Daniel William Alling about forty yards from the stake upon the Hill side which the said persons shewed it to me for another bounded Tree of Pokeloy's Land and further the said Jayman declares upon oath he the said John standing by a stake now drove into the Ground that within thirty yards of that stake that he was shewed a bounded white Oak by John Hance John Wimal John Danell William Alling which said parties told me it was a bounded Tree of Woodman Pokeloy's Land & I was shewed this Tree about a Week agoe I was shewed the other two and further the Depon. Saith not With your hands & Seals this 25th day of October 1712

John Leach
Henry Cox

Octob: 25th 1712

By Virtue of a Commission unto of the us directed John Leach & Henry Cox for to examine Evidences brought to us by Henry Cox and Eliz: Hutchins These are to Certify that we have done the same: Peter Sowle aged about forty years doth give his oath and saith that one John Hance which served Woodman Pokeloy did tell the said Depon. that the bounded Tree of wood: Pokeloy's Land ^{did stand} upon a knole to the Southward of Matthew Burnums Dwelling house and further saith not.

William Williams aged about Seventy odd years doth swear upon holy Evangelist that about forty years agoe he was

[Decorative flourish]

059
The thirty
Doth
Keen
Railor
Main
Dwoll
house
Stake
along there was Tree
W
upon
the bound or forty
Oath
when a Line
said
near Pottour