 Maj: Trueman's Land and the River, and further did say that if he could get a Warrant, he would lay it upon that Land, and said that he was my very good friend to advise me whereupon in some short time after I laid a Warrant on the said Land and had it Surveyed by Mr. John Leich then Surveyor of ~~St. Mary~~ County as may appear on Records, and further the Depouant saith that on the Survey which Mr. Leich made (there being only myself & Mr.
 Thomas Toney with him) we showing no claims to measure made the Survey by passing: And further this Depouant saith that he very well Remembers the first Course they Run, beginning at or near Abbington from did lead to or near the point or Island of Back Creek and further the Depouant saith that Mr. Richard Marshall now living has informed the Depouant that fifty odd years ago Maj: Trueman did show him a bound tree at or near the Back Creek which is supposed to be washed down by there gathering upon the Land as now Evidently appears and further the Depouant says not

Maryland The Deposition of M^{rs}. Martha Dauray of St. Marys County Aged forty four years or thereabouts taken upon oath touching the bounds of Thomas Trueman Greenfilds Land who declares that some time in the latter part of her former Husband Mr. Charles Ashcoms life time she this Depouant heard some discourse betwixt her said Husband and the said Greenfild concerning the infringements of M^r. James Kooch upon the said Greenfilds Land and that since this Depouant heard her husband ask the said Greenfild to come down and Resurvey it for that the Land was the said Greenfilds and that he the said Ashcom know the bounds thereof as well as he know the bounds of his own and for that the said Greenfild seemed some what doubtful ^{what} doubtful of the said Ashcoms said, he the said Ashcom offered to buy his title to the said Land. - April 8th: 1713. Jurat Coram Nobis.
