(c) indicates how the department intends to deal with potential federal penalties given the changes in TANF including but not limited to consideration of the following strategies:

(i) increasing work activity rates among temporary cash assistance recipients through broader work activity requirements, stricter enforcement and more rapid sanctions, use of work-experience slots for recipients unable to find work, and the elimination of eligibility for recipients who do not meet Family Investment Program requirements;

(ii) moving former Family Investment Program working families into the work participation rate by providing assistance to support these families as they leave welfare and make the transition from welfare to work; and

(iii) moving current Family Investment Program families with parents who may be unable to work because of disability, or family circumstances, out of the Family Investment Program while still providing these families with State benefits; and

(d) explains how it intends to address populations currently being served in State Only Programs that will be included in the work participation rate calculation under the new TANF provisions; and
