

(3) On receiving a record of a conviction of a person for a violation of § 21-902(a) of this article more than once within a 5-year period, the Administration shall issue to the person a notice of suspension of the person's license that:

- (i) States that the person's license shall be suspended for 1 year; and
- (ii) Advises the person of the right to request a hearing under this paragraph.

(4) After notice under paragraph (3) of this subsection, the Administration shall suspend a person's license under this subsection if:

- (i) The person does not request a hearing;
- (ii) After a hearing, the Administration finds that the person was convicted of more than one violation of § 21-902(a) of this article within a 5-year period; or
- (iii) The person fails to appear for a hearing requested by the person.

(5) The Administration shall, within 90 days of the expiration of the 1-year period of suspension, issue to the person a notice, unless this notice requirement was waived at a hearing described in paragraph (4) of this subsection, that:

- (i) States that the person shall maintain for not less than 3 months and not more than 1 year, dating from the expiration of the 1-year period of suspension, an ignition interlock system on each motor vehicle owned by the person;
- (ii) States that the Administration shall impose a restriction on the person's license that prohibits the person from driving a motor vehicle that is not equipped with an ignition interlock system for a period of not less than 3 months and not more than 1 year, dating from the expiration of the 1-year period of suspension; and
- (iii) Advises the person of the right to request a hearing under this paragraph.

(6) After notice under paragraph (5) of this subsection, or a waiver of notice, the Administration shall order a person to maintain for not less than 3 months and not more than 1 year, dating from the expiration of the 1-year period of suspension, an ignition interlock system on each motor vehicle owned by the person and impose a license restriction that prohibits the person from driving a motor vehicle that is not equipped with an ignition interlock system if:

- (i) The person does not request a hearing;
- (ii) The Administration finds at a hearing that the person owns one or more motor vehicles and that no financial hardship, as described in paragraphs (7) and (8) of this subsection, will be created by requiring the person to maintain an ignition interlock system on each motor vehicle owned by the person; or
