

(iii) The person fails to appear for a hearing requested by the person.

(7) If the Administration finds at a hearing that maintenance of an ignition interlock system on a motor vehicle owned by the person creates a financial hardship on the person, the family of the person, or a co-owner of the motor vehicle, the Administration:

(i) Shall impose a restriction on the license of the person for not less than 3 months and not more than 1 year, dating from the expiration of the 1-year period of suspension, that prohibits the person from driving any motor vehicle that is not equipped with an ignition interlock system; and

(ii) May not require the person to maintain an ignition interlock system on any motor vehicle to which the financial hardship applies.

(8) An exemption under paragraph (7)(ii) of this subsection applies only under circumstances that:

(i) Are specific to the person's motor vehicle; and

(ii) Meet criteria contained in regulations that shall be adopted by the Administration.

(9) If a person requests a hearing and the Administration finds that the person does not own a motor vehicle at the expiration of the 1-year period of suspension, the Administration shall impose a restriction on the license of the person for not less than 3 months and not more than 1 year, dating from the expiration of the 1-year period of suspension, that prohibits the person from driving any motor vehicle that is not equipped with an ignition interlock system.

(10) Each notice and hearing under this subsection shall meet the requirements of Title 12, Subtitle 2 of this article.

(11) This subsection does not limit any provision of this article that allows or requires the Administration to:

(i) Revoke or suspend a license of a person; or

(ii) Prohibit a person from driving a motor vehicle that is not equipped with an ignition interlock system.

(12) A suspension imposed under this subsection shall be concurrent with any other suspension or revocation imposed by the Administration that arises out of the circumstances of the conviction for a violation of § 21-902(a) of this article described in this subsection.

(f) (1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this subsection, the Administration may modify any suspension under this section or any suspension under § 16-205.1 of this subtitle and issue a restrictive license to a licensee who participates in the Ignition Interlock System Program established under § 16-404.1 of this title.
