

wheel”, in light of the use of computers. Similarly, former CJ § 8-205(b), which required preparation of an “alphabetical list” and restricted its disclosure, is deleted.

Also in subsection (a) of this section, the former phrase “at random” is deleted as unnecessary in light of former CJ § 8-102(a) now revised CJ § 8-104.

Also in subsection (a) of this section, the former reference to selection by “a judge of the court” is deleted for consistency with former CJ § 8-301(a) through (d) now revised CJ § 8-310(a)(2) which imposed the duty on the jury commissioner.

Also in subsection (a) of this section, the former reference to selection by “the clerk” is deleted as unnecessary in light of the definition of “jury commissioner”.

As to “county”, see Art. 1, § 14 of the Code.
