

judge. See, Md. Rule 16-101c and d and, as to "county", Art. 1, § 14 of the Code.

In subsection (b)(2) of this section, the clause "whom the county administrative judge designates" is substituted for the former phrase "as provided by the plan".

Defined terms: "Circuit court" § 1-101
"Jury plan" § 8-101

8-205. REQUIRED PROVISIONS - JURY COMMISSIONER.

(A) REQUIRED.

EACH JURY PLAN SHALL DESIGNATE A JURY COMMISSIONER.

(B) CHOICES.

THE JURY COMMISSIONER FOR A CIRCUIT COURT SHALL BE:

(1) THE CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT; OR

(2) ANOTHER INDIVIDUAL DESIGNATED IN THE MANNER SET FORTH IN THE JURY PLAN.

(C) ACTING JURY COMMISSIONER.

A JURY PLAN MAY DESIGNATE, OR ALLOW A JURY JUDGE TO DESIGNATE, AN INDIVIDUAL TO SERVE AS ACTING JURY COMMISSIONER IF THE JURY COMMISSIONER IS TEMPORARILY UNAVAILABLE OR UNABLE TO PERFORM DUTIES.

(D) DUTIES.

THE JURY COMMISSIONER FOR A CIRCUIT COURT SHALL MANAGE JURY SELECTION AND SERVICE, UNDER THE CONTROL AND SUPERVISION OF THE JURY JUDGE FOR THE CIRCUIT COURT.

(E) COMPENSATION.

A JURY COMMISSIONER, OTHER THAN A CLERK, IS ENTITLED TO THE COMPENSATION SET BY LAW.

COMMITTEE NOTE: Subsections (a), (b), (d), and (e) of this section are new language derived from the introductory language of former CJ § 8-202 and the first and second sentences and first clause of the third sentence of (1) and revised to provide for designation of a jury commissioner, to clarify that a designated clerk is acting as a jury commissioner.

Subsection (c) of this section is new and added to provide a means of ensuring the carrying out of duties in the absence or inability of a jury commissioner.

In subsection (d) of this section, reference to management of "jury selection and service" is substituted for the former reference to managing "the jury selection process", to reflect that the duties are broader.
