

(ii) the court shall order the clerk to enter an appearance for the corporation OR LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY and to endorse a plea of not guilty on the charging document.

(2) After the clerk makes the entry and endorsement specified in paragraph (1)(ii) of this subsection, further proceedings may occur concerning the charging document in the same manner as if the corporation OR LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY had appeared and pleaded not guilty.

(e) (1) If a corporation OR LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY is served a summons under this section and is convicted on the charging document, a court may:

(i) pass a judgment concerning the charging document; and

(ii) issue process of execution to the sheriff of the county against the property of the corporation OR LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY for the amount of the fine and costs that may be awarded against the corporation OR LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY in the same manner as on a judgment in a civil action.

(2) A sheriff shall sell the property of the corporation OR LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY on an execution under paragraph (1) of this subsection in the same manner as on an execution issued in a civil suit.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect October 1, 2006.

May 26, 2006

The Honorable Michael E. Busch
Speaker of the House
State House
Annapolis, MD 21401

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, today I have vetoed House Bill 756 – Transportation – Passenger Railroad Service Lines – Closure of MARC Train Stations.

This bill prohibits the Mass Transit Administration from closing specified stations and specified passenger railroad service lines before March 6, 2007; and requires the Administration to conduct a specified review and report its findings to the Governor and the General Assembly before closing specified rail stations.

Senate Bill 366, which was passed by the General Assembly and allowed to go into effect without my signature, accomplishes the same purpose. Therefore, it is not necessary for me to sign House Bill 756.

Very truly yours,
Robert L. Ehrlich, Jr.
Governor
