

~~(d)~~ ~~(E)~~ (d) (1) The Secretary shall dispose of surplus personal property ~~IN THE FOLLOWING ORDER OF PRIORITY:~~

~~(I) BY OFFERING THE PROPERTY TO THE PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM IN THE LOCAL JURISDICTION IN WHICH THE PROPERTY ORIGINATED;~~

~~(II) BY OFFERING THE PROPERTY TO THE LOCAL JURISDICTION IN WHICH THE PROPERTY ORIGINATED;~~

~~(III) BY OFFERING THE PROPERTY TO NONPROFIT ENTITIES IN THE JURISDICTION IN WHICH THE PROPERTY ORIGINATED;~~

~~(IV) BY OFFERING THE PROPERTY TO THE LOCAL JURISDICTION OR NONPROFIT ENTITY RECOMMENDED BY THE ORIGINAL CUSTODIAL UNIT OF THE PROPERTY;~~

~~(V) BY OFFERING THE PROPERTY TO THE PUBLIC AT A CENTRALIZED WAREHOUSE LOCATION;~~

~~(i)~~ ~~(VI)~~ (i) by dismantling it for recovery of valuable parts;

~~(ii)~~ ~~(VII)~~ (ii) by trading it in;

~~(iii)~~ ~~(VIII)~~ (iii) by transferring it to a local ~~jurisdiction~~ JURISDICTION, PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM, or nonprofit organization;

~~(IV) BY TRANSFERRING IT TO A PUBLIC SCHOOL;~~

~~{(iv)}~~ ~~(V)~~ ~~(IX)~~ by auctioning or selling it, including selling it for scrap value; or

~~{(v)}~~ ~~(VI)~~ (X) if no value can be realized from it, by destroying it.

(2) If surplus personal property is destroyed under this subsection, the unit of the State government that declared the item to be excess personal property shall pay any cost of destruction.

~~(e)~~ ~~(F)~~ (e) The Secretary may delegate the authority to dispose of surplus personal property to a designee of the Secretary or, by regulation, to another unit of the State government.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect October 1, 2005.

Approved May 26, 2005.

CHAPTER 514

(Senate Bill 886)

AN ACT concerning

Charles County - New School Capacity Construction Bonds - Limitation