

him, and send him to you as I hear they have made some provisions for the freedmen.

Very respectfully,

S. N. DUNKELL.

Endorsed—"States James Coker is made free by the Constitution. He has no means to do anything for him and sends him to Maj. Gen. Wallace as he hears provision has been made for the freedmen."

BALTIMORE, MD., November 18th, 1864.

STATEMENT OF LUCY DORSEY,

I was a slave of Mrs. Mary Wetherington, my daughter was also a slave to the same lady in Carroll county, Md., and is yet held by Mrs. Wetherington who refused to let me have her when I went after her on Monday, the 14th inst. My daughter is 12 years of age. Her mistress wanted to bind her as an apprentice, but the Justice would not do so. I wish to have her returned to my charge, as her mistress refuses to give her up, I appeal to the General Commanding to assist me.

her
LUCY ✕ DORSEY.
mark

Witness,
WM. R. MERRILL.

Endorsed—"States Mrs. Mary Wetherington, Carroll county, Md., holds her daughter and requests she be given up."

BALTIMORE, November 18th, 1864.

MAJ. GEN. WALLACE,

Dear Sir:—The bearer Lydia Dorsey, (colored,) I have known her for the past ten or fifteen years, she is an honest,