

Endorsed—"Request to have his two boys restored to him, now held by Mr. George Spencer, Kent county, Maryland."

This girl, Henrietta Banks, belongs to Mr. William Martin, of Baltimore.

This girl has been living with Wilson in her slave days, and they have got her so that she don't want to leave them, but I want to take her from them as they are not giving her any wages, and holding her in slavery. I think I ought to take care of her as I am her father. I went to Mr. Wilson's for her and he drove me from his house, and said I should not have her without authority.

Her father,

SOLOMAN BANKS.

She is not bright and has not sense enough to take care of herself.

Endorsed—"Requests that his daughter, Henrietta, be returned to him, now held by Mr. Wilson, corner Pratt and Washington streets."

PRINCE FREDERICK, December 6th, 1864.

DINAH REID.

Dear Mother:—In reply to yours, I am happy to be able to inform you that I am well, and so is the child and Preat also. You say in your letter that you want to know who my children are bound to, and the names of the three children, and the Provost Marshal's name. George Chambers is the man to whom my children are bound. Their names are George William Washington Reid, Georgina V. Reid, Mary E. Hambliton Reid. The Provost Marshal's name is Jesse J. Dalrymple. These children was bound out in my absence and contrary to my wishes, therefore I don't think there
