

lations as to teachers, text-books, School libraries, &c.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the City and ^{Directors to visit.} County Directors to visit such Schools, once in each month, and to make special report of the progress of the pupils. They shall suggest such modes of teaching as may be specially adapted to the need of this long neglected class of children, and advise the teachers so that they will be able to impart to them knowledge by such means as are best suited to their wants.

SEC. 4. In the City of Baltimore and in each ^{Certain Taxes to be appropriated.} County, until Schools are established for the instruction of children of African descent, there shall be allowed and paid over to private Schools for the education of such children under the direction of Trustees, as the State Superintendent may direct, a portion of the State School tax and of the County and District School taxes equal to the amount of taxes collected for school purposes, upon property belonging to persons of African descent.

SEC. 5. Until separate Schools for children of ^{Population, how enumerated.} African descent are established, no City or County shall be allowed to include any other than the white inhabitants between the ages of five and twenty years in the enumeration for distribution of the State School tax and State School funds.

SEC. 6. The State Superintendent may, if he think proper, select for the use of children in Colored Schools other Text-Books than those prescribed by the State Board of Education.