

Answer. Yes.

Question. Do you know of any other service rendered or acts done by that company of which Mr. Grason was Lieutenant?

Answer. I do not know of any with the exception that after they had returned from the city, there was some scouts went up the road in the direction of Cockeysville, there they caught a man who had come down with the troops to Cockeysville and could not get any further; he wandered somewhere from his company; they arrested him and brought him to Towson-town; one of the members of the Horse Guards, Mr. Hunt, arrested him.

Question. What was done with him?

Answer. He was put in jail there.

Question. Do you know whether they had ammunition; whether their swords were fit for use?

Answer. On the Sunday following the 19th of April, a man there named ———, ground their swords for them; I was called upon by some gentlemen of the company who went into the dining room of Ady's Hotel, and asked to shoe their horses; I told them I was conscientiously opposed to working upon the Sabbath.

Question. Was Mr. Grason with them on that day?

Answer. I cannot say.

Question. How long were they under arms?

Answer. One or two weeks I suppose.

By the Committee.

Question by the committee. Who was the man that was arrested?

Answer. A man who came down with the regiment as far as Cockeysville; the bridges were burnt, and he could not get any further.

Direct Examination Resumed.

Question. At that time, or at any other time, while the company was under arms, had they any flag or banner that they carried?

Answer. I never saw any that they carried on their march.

The examination in chief of this witness was here concluded.

Cross-examination.

Question, This company was organized in the fall of 1860, was it not?