Question. It was at a meeting of the Union party, was it not?

Answer. Yes.

Question. And Mr. Grason, of course, had no right to participate in the proceedings, had he?

Answer. No: I think he was not invited.

By the Committee.

Question by the Committee. Do you know that Mr. Grason heard you make that statement?

Answer. I am satisfied he heard me make the statement at the Court House, he was sitting on a bench in front of me.

Question by the Committee. Did you say Mr. Grason was not allowed to participate in the Union meeting?

Answer. I did not say that he was not allowed, but that he was not invited to speak.

Cross-examination resumed.

Question. Do you recollect, at the Parkton meeting, that one of the speakers was interrupted upon the charge of making some misstatement, and that there was a cry raised that they came there to disturb the meeting, and they came near having a row in consequence of it?

Answer. I don't remember that, there might have been some interruptions.

Question. Did the Horse Guards own any flag at all, or colors of any kind?

Answer. I do not know of them owning any flag, whether they owned the flag that floated over the house where they met in, I cannot state.

Question. I mean company colors, from the time the company was organized up to the 19th of April?

Answer. I do not remember of having seen them carry a flag during that time.

Question. You have been associated with Mr. Grason, as member of that bar, for how many years?

Answer. I think I was admitted to the bar in 1859.

Question. Did Mr. Grason then reside in Towsontown?

Answer. Yes. I knew him a short time before I was admitted.

Question. He has acted as Special Judge, has he not, in your court?

Answer. Yes.

By the Committee.

Question by the Committee. Who put this flag over Mr. Ady's Hotel?