

Answer. In opposition.

Question. Was your company a Union company or was it acting in hostility to the United States?

Answer. It was a Union company.

Question. You say you were not co-operating with the Horse Guards, do you not?

Answer. No.

The examination in chief of this witness was here concluded.

Cross-examination.

Question. Where was Mr. Grason when the raising of the flag took place by the ladies?

Answer. I could not say.

Question. Did you see him there?

Answer. Not that I recollect.

Question. Was Mr. Longnecker a member of your company?

Answer. He was an honorary member, not an active member.

Question. Was he at that time Editor of the Baltimore County American?

Answer. I believe so.

Question. Did you see any waving of hats at the time of the raising of the flag on the 29th of April, by parties at Ady's Hotel?

Answer. No.

Question. Did you hear any hurraing for Jeff Davis?

Answer. I cannot recollect.

Question. Did you say you heard some hissing and groaning?

Answer. Yes. I do not recollect anything else at present.

By the Committee.

Question by the Committee. How far were you from the parties at Mr. Ady's Hotel at the time of the raising of that flag?

Answer. Some fifty (50) or hundred (100) yards.

Cross-examination resumed.

Question. Were you likely to have seen Mr. Grason if he had been present?

Answer. He might have been there; I can't recollect at present.

By the Committee.

Question by the Committee. What was your position on the ground that day?