

Question. State if you saw how it was greeted by any members of the Horse Guards that you know?

Answer. At one time during the putting up of the flag, there was a noise over at Ady's Hotel, the character of which I don't remember.

Question. Did you see persons that you knew, if so, who were they?

Answer. The only person I remember now was Mr. Grason. I don't know who else was there.

Question. State if you know any other acts than these spoken of on the part of Mr. Grason, of any hostility to the United States Government or the lawful authorities thereof, since that time?

Answer. I am only acquainted with those in connection with the Horse Guards. I shortly after that left. I was ordered away.

Question. Where have you been most of the time since?

Answer. In the army.

The examination in chief of this witness was here concluded.

Cross-examination.

Question. What was that noise raised at Ady's Hotel?

Answer. The character of it, I cannot remember.

Question. Where were you standing when you saw Mr. Grason?

Answer. Up near the flag staff.

Question. Where was Mr. Grason?

Answer. I cannot exactly tell the place, whether it was outside on the porch or inside looking out of one of the windows.

Question. Can't you say whether he was on the porch or inside looking out the window?

Answer. I cannot locate the place.

Question. How was he dressed?

Answer. Indeed I cannot tell.

Question. Who was with him?

Answer. I don't remember who they were.

Question. Did you hear him say anything?

Answer. No.

Question. Did you see him do anything?

Answer. No.

Question. Do you wish to be understood as swearing positively, without equivocation, that you saw him there at that time?

Answer. Yes. I saw him there.

Question. You have no doubt about that, have you?

Answer. No.