

Question. How many people were about the flag-staff when Mr. Grason came up after Gilmor and his party came?

Answer. I suppose there must have been some twenty (20) or thirty (30) gathered up there.

Question. Was Mr. Longnecker there?

Answer. I have no recollection of seeing him.

Question. Were you present at any interview between Mr. Grason and Mr. Longnecker in reference to that flag?

Answer. No.

Question. Did you see Gilmor and Gatchner come up with the flag?

Answer. Yes.

Question. Did Gatchner belong to the Horse Guards?

Answer. Yes.

Question. Who was with Gilmor when he came from the direction of Baltimore with the flag?

Answer. I think he came up alone; he was on horseback.

By the Committee.

• Question by the Committee. You say you did not know whether Mr. Grason was standing on the porch or at the window?

Answer. No. I cannot locate the place.

Question by the Committee. Where was that window?

Answer. It was fronting up the road towards the flag-staff.

Question by the Committee. There were other persons with him, were they not?

Answer. I am certain of that.

Question by the Committee. Was he inside the House?

Answer. I cannot locate the place where he was standing; the only reason that I remember so distinctly is because he must have been in some place prominent to my view, the reason I distinguished him from the other and being very familiar with him also.

Question by the Committee. You do not know whether he was standing inside or outside of the house?

Answer. No.

Direct examination resumed.

Question. Had you any conversation with Mr. Grason subsequent to your return from your regiment in which he expressed any desire for the success of the rebels, or anything of that kind?

Answer. No.

Question. Had you any conversation in reference to the success of the rebels?

Answer. No.

The examination of this witness was here concluded.
