

Question. Do you recollect any disturbance that occurred there; a quarrel between Mr. Yellott and other parties?

Answer. That was the second raising of the flag. Another time. There were two (2) raising of flags there, the first raising of the flag was the old flag which was taken down on Sunday after the 19th, and was raised on the Monday following the 19th of April. I don't think there was any disturbance at Ady's place at that time.

Question. On this 29th of April of which you speak were there any cheering at Ady's Hotel?

Answer. I did not hear of any.

Question. Was there any groaning or hissing at Ady's?

Answer. I did not hear any.

Question. Did you see anybody wave a hat?

Answer. I do not know.

Question. Did you see Mr. Grason there?

Answer. No.

Question. Was he there?

Answer. I did not see him, I saw Mr. Ady on the porch, Mr. Samuel Butler, and I think Mr. John Butler was there.

Question. Do you think Mr. Grason could have been there and you not have seen him?

Answer. I don't know, I did not see him there at the time. I did not so particularly notice the parties on the porch as I did at the pole raising, but I did not hear any cheering at Ady's porch.

Question. Were you sufficiently near to have heard it, if there had been any?

Answer. I was nearer the porch than the flag raising.

Question. How far were you from the porch?

Answer. Fifteen (15) or twenty (20) yards, not more than that.

Question. Do you recollect who else spoke besides Mr. Ensor?

Answer. I don't think there was any one else spoke. Mr. Ware appeared to be anxious to speak, but he was not called upon. I did not come in time for the flag raising, did not propose to go up until I saw Mr. Ensor going to make a speech, then I went up. I think Mr. Samuel Butler went up with me.

Question. Do you recollect being upon your porch at all, any time during Monday, when the news of the battle of Bull Run, of 1861, was received?

Answer. Yes.

Question. State all about it, the circumstances connected with it?

Answer. I kept the post office there, when the morning mail came up we got the papers, everything appeared to be favorable to the Federal army, when the afternoon paper came up Mr. Longnecker got it on the road, and brought it in on
