

the Odd Fellows Hall with the flag. After the flag was raised there was some speaking at the pole.

Question. Did you hear any singing?

Answer. I think there was singing as well as I can recollect.

Question. Were you on the porch?

Answer. Yes.

Question. Sitting or standing?

Answer. I was sitting sometime and standing some, as well as I can recollect.

Question. How long did you remain on the porch?

Answer. Until after the flag was raised and they began to go from the pole.

Question. During that time, was there any cheering upon the porch or upon the pavement?

Answer. No. I did not hear any.

Question. Did you hear any groaning or hissing at any time?

Answer. No.

Question. Do you know Mr. Grason?

Answer. Yes.

Question. How long have you known him?

Answer. Some years.

Question. Was he there at that time?

Answer. No. I did not see him.

Question. You were there during all that time, were you not?

Answer. Yes. I was there from early in the morning until night.

Question. Did you belong to any military organization?

Answer. No.

Question. From the time you first arrived at Ady's Hotel until you left it, after the people had dispersed from the flag raising, did you see Mr. Grason at Ady's Hotel?

Answer. No.

The examination in chief of this witness was here concluded.

Cross-examination.

Question. Who did you see there?

Answer. It is hard to tell all I seen there, there was John Payne, Mr. Carman, as well as I can recollect, old Mr. Payne was there, I recollect them.

Question. Can you name any one else?

Answer. There was more that I saw, but I cannot recollect their names.

Question. How many do you suppose you saw at Ady's house and porch, as distinct from those who were across the way at the pole?