

Answer. There was a great many, some dozen or more may be.

Question. How long did the exercises at the foot of the pole last?

Answer. I hardly know.

Question. How many speeches were made?

Answer. Mr. Ware spoke, I think Mr. Ensor spoke.

Question. Are you certain you saw Mr. Ensor that day anywhere?

Answer. Yes. He was there.

Question. Was that flag run up without difficulty or was there any trouble, any catch in putting it up?

Answer. I believe there was some.

Question. What was the nature of that difficulty?

Answer. I could not tell what it was now.

Question. Was there any demonstration made at the time of that difficulty by either one of the two crowds?

Answer. Not that I know.

Question. How long a time did you say those exercises at the foot of the pole lasted?

Answer. It was over a half hour.

Question. During all that time what were those persons about Ady's porch doing?

Answer. They were standing about there as well as I can recollect.

Question. Was there any animated or excited conversation among them?

Answer. Not until after it was raised.

Question. Was there, during all that time, until the crowd dispersed, any difficulty, high words or anything of that kind?

Answer. No.

Question. Were you ever present at Mr. Ady's at the time of the raising of any other flag?

Answer. No.

Question. Were you off the porch or the ground in front of Ady's, and going towards the flag-staff during that time?

Answer. I don't think I was off the porch.

Question. Was there any cheering at the foot of the pole?

Answer. Yes.

Question. At the time of this cheering, was there any joining in the cheers, or response of any kind, by persons in the vicinity of Ady's Hotel?

Answer. No.

Question. Did you hear in any way, by the crowd at Ady's Hotel, any use of the name of Jeff. Davis or the Southern Confederacy?

Answer. No.

Question. Did you know of an organization in the vicinity of Towsontown, at any time known as the Horse Guards?

Answer. I knew there was such a company.