Question. Did you see it?

Answer. Yes: I saw it as it was carried up the road.

Question. Who carried it?

Answer. One of the Gilmor boys.

Question. Was it Harry?

Answer. I will not be certain.

Question. You are confident that you were not on Mr. Cooper's porch between (10) ten and (4) four o'clock on the day the news of the battle of Bull Run was received?

Answer. Yes.

By the Committee.

Question by the Committee. Did you say you got that extra in the morning?

Answer. About the middle of the day ; I think about (11) o'clock. I am sure I had it before (12) o'clock.

Question by the Committee. On the Monday morning?

Answer. Yes.

The examination of this witness was here concluded.

WILLIAM BOWEN, called as a witness for Respondent, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence and occupation?

Answer. My name is William Bowen, I am (35) thirty-five years old ; I reside at Towsontown, and am a stone mason.

Question. How long have you resided in Towsontown?

Answer. I was born there.

Question. How long have you known Mr. Grason?

Answer. Ever since he has lived there.

Question. Do you remember the circumstance of the raising of the flag on the 29th of April, at Towsontown?

Answer. I recollect there was one raised, but I was not present at the time.

Question. Do you recollect one Sunday afternoon last summer when some rebel scouts were in Towsontown?

Answer. I do.

Question. State what you saw of them?

Answer. I was down in the town, I saw three of them ride in on the new pike called the Dulaney's Valley pike; I left the town and went up to my house to tell the women that the rebels were come in the town.

Question. Did you see Mr. Grason's boys that afternoon?

Answer. Yes.

Question. State all about it will you?

Answer. I came out into the yard and they came up the road right past my house, these three men, one of the boys