

Question. At the first time was your attention directed towards Ady's or the flag?

Answer. The flag.

Question. Was that fuss which was kicked up, the one between the Messrs. Yellot.

Answer. Yes,

Question. Did that continue during all that time?

Answer. That, and between other parties, there was a muss between Mr. Yellot's father and Mr. German.

Question. How long did these two difficulties last?

Answer. Fifteen (15) or twenty (20) minutes.

Question. During the interval between the first and second what was your attention directed towards?

Answer. Ady's.

By the Committee.

Question by the Committee. Which was the nephew of the two Mr. Yellott's?

Answer. George Yellott was "Tip" Yellott's uncle.

Question by the Committee. Were you under the Sheriff's orders at that time?

Answer. None of us were at that time.

WM. BOWEN, re-called.

Question by the Committee. You stated, yesterday, in reference to the rebel scouts, that Mr. Ady went into Mrs. Sheeley's store and bought a hat and gave to one of these scouts. State who went to the store with Mr. Ady, and what took place?

Answer. I was standing in the road, and Mr. Ady said to one of the men: "go in, the store is open now, you can get a hat as well as I or any one;" he started towards the store; Mr. Ady met Mrs. Sheeley's son; he came across with the key; he and Mr. Ady went into the store, and the scout followed them.

Question by Respondent. What's the son's name?

Answer. William Sheeley; he is a clerk in his mother's store.

Question. Do you know anything about the scouts threatening to break Mrs. Sheeley's store open, unless they could purchase some hats?

Answer. I do not.

Question. Where is William Sheeley now?

Answer. In Towsontown.

CHARLES YELLOTT, called as a witness for the Respondent, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Question. State your name, age and residence?

Answer. My name is Charles Yellott; I am 24 years old, and reside in Baltimore county.