

Question. Were you taken before Col. Woolley and examined?

Answer. Yes.

Question. Upon what charge?

Answer. I was charged with having guided the rebels.

Question. What was the result of that examination?

Answer. I was released until called for.

Question. On your return from Col. Woolley's office did you pass through Towsontown?

Answer. No.

Question. Where were you when the raiders came into Towsontown?

Answer. In Towsontown.

Question. Had you been taken prisoner?

Answer. Yes, by Major Gilmor, at Magnolia. Before we got to the Harford road, a little boy that we met told Gilmor there was cavalry at Bishop's. Major Gilmore was then riding with me in the buggy, and leading his horse; he told me to get out of the way, I considered that I was discharged. I then went over to Mr. Bishop's and asked him if I could get to the city, he told me if I got in I could not get out any more, it was then after night. I stood there about twenty (20) minutes, in this time Major Gilmor came up with his army. I was talking with Mr. Bishop a long time, I told him after awhile, that I thought I would go to Towsontown as I had some business; I went there and put up at Ady's Hotel; I had my horse fed, eat my supper and after standing on the pavement for awhile, I went up to see Mr. Grason, I had some business with him. I went up to Mr. Grason's and found him sitting on the porch, I did not know which was Mr. Grason's house, and as I was going up the platform I met a gentleman and asked him if he knew where Mr. Grason lived, and he showed me the house; I called Mr. Grason out and asked him if he would not attend to my business. He said he would attend to it and I left him.

Question. What was that business?

Answer. I had a case in the Court of Appeals. Mr. Williams was attending to it for me, he said he could not go to Towsontown and recommended me to get Mr. Grason to attend to it for me.

Question. Did you know the party of whom you inquired the way?

Answer. No.

Question. Did you walk along with him some distance?

Answer. Maybe about one hundred (100) yards.

Question. Did he go with you as far as Mr. Grason's House?

Answer. Yes; he showed me his house and kept on up the street.

Question. Did Mr. Grason give the reason why your case had not been tried?
