

Question. Did you have any conversation with Mr. Ridgely as to his residence?

Answer. I had.

Question. Where was that?

Answer. I think it was near his own residence in the county.

Question. Did I understand you that he had a town and county residence?

Answer. Yes.

Question. How long had he resided in the county?

Answer. About twenty years perhaps.

Question. You were doing business in town at that time, and representing Baltimore county in the Legislature, were you not?

Answer. Yes.

By the Committee.

Question by the Committee. Did you vote in Baltimore city during that time.

Answer. No.

The Examination of this witness was here concluded.

The committee then adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

MARCH 1st, 1865.

10 o'clock A. M.

The Committee met, pursuant to adjournment, present all the members.

R. R. BOARMAN, called as a witness for Respondent, being duly sworn, testified as follow:

Question. State your name, age, residence and occupation?

Answer, My name is R. R. Boarman, I reside at Towson-town, am thirty years old, and am a member of the bar there.

Question. Are you acquainted with Henry Kone, who testified in this case?

Answer. I am.

Question. Mr. Kone, testified that you were present at the flag raising by the ladies at Towson town, were you there?

Answer. No: the first time I had not paid particular attention to the different flag raising, the first time I was either in Bel-Air, Harford county, or My Lady's Manor in Baltimore county.

The first time I saw that flag, was when I drove in with a