

Question. Were you a member of any military organization?

Answer. No.

The examination in chief of this witness was here concluded.

Cross-examination.

Question. Were you a member of the Minute men?

Answer. No.

Question. Were you in the rooms occupied by the Minute men, at that time?

Answer. No.

Question. Do you know whether any members, if so who, were at or about their rooms, during the time that flag was there?

Answer. No: I cannot say that I do.

Question. Did you see any of those men, at or about their Headquarters, under arms at that time?

Answer. No.

Question. Are you a brother of Mr. Taylor who testified here?

Answer. Yes: Thomas H. Taylor.

Question. Have you other brothers?

Answer. No.

Question. How did you know that the men who stopped you were members of the Towson Guards?

Answer. From the fact that I knew all the members of the Towson Guards. If they had been the Horse Guards, they would have had their horses there.

Question. You knew from the fact that they were on foot?

Answer. Yes: they were on foot, I knew them.

Question. Did you see the Horse Guards at Towsontown the week following the 19th of April?

Answer. I did not.

Question. Were did you see them?

Answer. I saw them when they first came to town; they stopped in front of the City Hall in Holliday street.

Question. Can you tell who was in command of the company at that time?

Answer. Captain Charles Ridgely.

Question. Did you see him there?

Answer. Yes.

Question. What Lieutenants did you see there?

Answer. Mr. Carman and Mr. Merryman.

Question. Did you see Mr. Grason?

Answer. I don't remember seeing Mr. Grason there.

Question. Do you know whether they were there as volunteers, or came because called for?