

Question. Is this the same Harry Gilmor who has since been an officer of the rebel army of considerable note?

Answer. Yes.

By the Committee.

Question by the Committee. Do you know whether or not the sheriff gave any instructions other than those in the printed certificate?

Answer. Not that I am aware of; the instructions he gave me were contained in those printed instructions; he gave no others as far as I am concerned.

Question by the Committee. You were not present when the arrests were made on Sunday night, were you?

Answer. No; Lieutenant Rider had command that night.

Cross-examination resumed.

Question. Waht roads were picketed by your company?

Answer. The York and Hillen roads.

Question. In which direction from Towsontown was the York Road picketed?

Answer. In the direction of Baltimore.

Question. How far?

Answer. About a quarter of a mile.

Question. What is the distance between Towsontown and Baltimore by the pike?

Answer. Seven (7) miles.

Direct examination resumed.

Question. Did you know that a difficulty existed between the members, before the organization of the companies?

Answer. Yes; I understood there was; I live some distance from Towsontown.

Question. Do you know whether or not know-nothingism had anything to do with it?

Answer. Not that I am aware of.

By the Committee.

Question by the Committee. How do you mean to be understood, as political difference, was it as democrats and whigs?

Answer. The only difficulty I heard of, was between Gilmor and Witter; I was under the impression that their difficulty rose out of politics.

Question by the Committee. Were they members of the same political party, at that time?

Answer. They were opposed in politics.