

pany I claimed to be Union, but I believe some of them were no better Union men than they ought to be.

Question. Was that claimed made in behalf of the Horse Guards?

Answer. I don't know, I did not visit among them.

Question. You do not know that there was any claim at all that the Horse Guards were loyal?

Answer. I never heard of it.

By the Committee.

Question by the Committee. Do you know whether any members of your company wore badges?

Answer. Yes; I heard they wore the State flag the coat-of-arms.

Question by the Committee. Did you regard that as disloyal?

Answer. I hardly knew what was disloyal at that time, there was so much excitement.

Question by the Committee. In speaking of the State flag, do you mean that it was the Maryland flag?

Answer. Yes; the Maryland coat-of-arms.

(The Maryland coat of arms was here shown to the witness, and he was asked by the committee, whether that was the flag which he alluded to.)

Answer. That was the flag which I saw.

Question by the Committee. Did your company have the Stars and Stripes?

Answer. Yes; we had a new one that we always kept in the Hall.

Question by the Committee. Did you ever see the Horse Guards with the Stars and Stripes?

Answer. I never saw them with any flag at all from the time they were organized.

The examination of this witness was here concluded,

The counsel for the Respondent here offered the paper marked "Exhibit D."

The counsel for the contestant did not object to the filing of the paper, but said that it was given subsequent to the transaction spoken of by Mr. Bartlett, and in order to the release.
