

Question. Did they make any demonstration of any kind as they went pass Longnecker's?

Answer. I think there was a demonstration made before they left, I remember that Mr. T. Sturgis Davis stepped out into the road and offered three cheers for Longnecker.

Question. Did he cheer alone?

Answer. I cannot say, I remember distinctly hearing him cheer.

Question. Don't you remember of hearing anybody else cheering except Davis?

Answer. I cannot remember whether they did or not.

By the Committee.

Question by the Committee. Was that before they were mounted?

Answer. I think it was.

Cross-examination resumed.

Question. Did you meet frequently Lieuts. Merryman and Grason during that week?

Answer. I saw them about town, I had no conversation with them.

Question. Did you hear either of them say anything by way of threatening the Union men in the vicinity of Towson-town?

Answer. No.

Question. Did you hear either of them say anything to the effect that the Union men had brought those troops down to steal negroes or any thing of that sort?

Answer. No.

Question. Did you ever say anything of that sort, yourself?

Answer. Certainly not.

Question. And never heard either of them?

Answer. No.

Question. Did you hear any expressions in reference to the contest or any collision whatever from either of them?

Answer. No.

Question. Where were you standing at the time of the flag raising?

Answer. On Mr. Ady's porch.

Question. Were there many persons about there?

Answer. Ten (10) or twelve (12) probably.

Question. Was there any excitement?

Answer. Some excitement between the Messrs. Yellott's, a fight, a rough and tumble fight, tearing of shirts, &c.