

Answer. I will swear that he had no uniform on at that time.

Question. Did you hear any singing?

Answer. No, I did not hear any singing.

Question. There was no singing at Ady's or the flag pole, was there?

Answer. I did not hear any singing at the flag pole, but there was some cheering for the flag.

Question. Were there any speeches made?

Answer. Yes, Mr. Ensor was one of the parties and I think Mr. Ware was another.

Question. Had there been any speeches made in the hall?

Answer. Yes.

Question. Who spoke there?

Answer. I cannot say, I think probably Mr. Ensor was one of the parties who spoke in the hall.

Question. How many Mr. Yellotts were there at Ady's Hotel?

Answer. Two, Tip Yellott and Mr. George Yellott.

Question. Had they any difficulty?

Answer. At the second flag raising not at the first.

Question. You say that it was either Saturday or Sunday that the Baltimore County Horse Guards received orders to go and take Fort McHenry?

Answer. Yes.

Question. Do you know whose orders they were?

Answer. No.

Question. From whom did you get your information that they were ordered to take Fort McHenry?

Answer. It was the general talk around the neighborhood of Towson town that they had received orders to go and take Fort McHenry.

Question. Can you name the persons who made this statement?

Answer. No.

Question. Could you name any one of them?

Answer. No, I do not think I could.

Question. Captain Chew said he was anxious to have orders, did he?

Answer. Yes, he was Captain of the Towson Guards.

Question. The only enemy you knew of then were the troops at Cockeysville?

Answer. Yes, that what I considered the enemy.

The examination of this witness was here concluded.

JAMES PENNINGTON, JR., called as a witness for the Contestant, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Question. State your name, age, and residence?