NEGATIVE—None.

Said resolution was then returned to the Senate.

Mr. Anderson gave notice that at the proper time he would move to amend Rule twenty-second of the Rules and Orders for the Regulations and Government of the House of Delegates, so as to read as follows :

XXII.

The previous question shall be in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" It may be called for on any question, and when demanded by a majority of the members present, it shall preclude all further amendment and debate of the main question.

On motion of Mr. Lee, of Baltimore city,

The House took a recess to 7½ o'clock, P. M.
