

Mr. Anderson, from the committee on the Judiciary, reported with amendment the Senate bill entitled, an Act to amend and re-enact section 10, of the 5th Article of the Code of Public General Laws entitled, "appeals;"

Which was read the second time.

Mr. Anderson, in accordance with notice previously given, submitted the following amendment to Rule 22d, of the Rules and Orders for the regulation and government of the House of Delegates:

Shall the previous question be now put? It may be called for on any question, and when demanded by a majority of the members present it shall preclude all further amendment and debate on the question or section of the bill under consideration.

Mr. Miller, of Anne Arundel, submitted the following amendment to the amendment:

Add to the motion to amend the following, "but this change shall not take effect until to-morrow."

Mr. Rider demanded the yeas and nays.

The demand being sustained,

The yeas and nays were called and appeared as follow:
