Jamison,	Robinson,	Wilson—5.

Said bill was then sent to the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Rider,

The bill in relation to the immigration of negroes into this State, was postponed until 9 o'clock, P. M.

The House took up the consideration of the reports of the committee on Elections in the contested election case of James L. Ridgely vs. Richard Grason.

The question being upon the adoption of the majority report,

Mr. Pilkington moved to amend by substituting in lieu thereof the minority report.

Mr. Miller, of Anne Arundel, called the previous question,

The question being, shall the main question be now put?

It was decided in the negative.

After discussion of the reports,

Mr. King called the previous question.

The question being, shall the main question be now put?

It was decided in the affirmative.

The question recurring on the adoption of the minority report,

Mr. Slothower demanded the yeas and nays;

The demand being sustained,
