

the militia laws of the State, or of these or any future orders in pursuance thereof, or to the provisions, when the same are applicable, of the laws of the United States, or its articles of war, or army rules and regulations, or to the customs or usages of war.

14. For neglect of any duty required in these or any future general orders.

15. For offering any fee or gratuity to any member of a board of exemption, other than as hereinbefore prescribed.

16. For bribing or attempting to bribe any officer to neglect or violate any duty.

17. For neglecting, if a commissioned officer, to uniform, arm and equip himself for more than three months after the date of his appointment.

Record.

SECT. 148.—A complete and accurate record of the proceedings in each case, clearly and legibly written, as far as practicable, without erasure or interlineations, with the documents accompanying the proceedings noted and marked in such manner as to afford an easy reference, and prefaced by a copy of the order appointing the court, shall be authenticated by the signatures of the president and judge advocate, and transmitted, without delay, to the officer ordering the court, who shall annex thereto his approval or disapproval, and forward the same to the adjutant general.

Copy to be Furnished.

SECT. 149.—The party tried shall receive, upon request, from the adjutant general, a copy of the record, he paying a reasonable sum therefor.

Sentence—How Enforced.

SECT. 150.—When sentence of death is imposed and the same is approved by the commander-in-chief, execution thereof shall be made at such time and place as he may appoint, and by such guard as he may cause to be detailed for that purpose.

SECT. 151.—When sentence of imprisonment is imposed and approved by the officer ordering the court, he may cause the same to be executed by the sheriff of the county in which the party resides, or warden of the city of Baltimore, by confinement in the county or city jail, or, for special cause shown to the commander-in-chief, and with his approval, by the sheriff of any other county.

SECT. 152.—In case said sentence imposes any fine or penalty, and the same is approved as aforesaid, a certified copy thereof, duly authenticated by the officer ordering the court, shall be transmitted to the commandant of the military district in which the party resides, who shall collect and account for the same as hereinbefore provided in the case of collection of commutations.
