The President voted in the affirmative.

TUESDAY, February 14th, 4 P. M.

On motion of Mr. Davis, of Caroline,

Ordered, that the officers of the Senate be allowed the same rates of mileage that members are entitled to and that the chairman of the committee on Claims order the credits to be made on the books.

On motion of Mr. Turner,

Ordered, That one thousand extra copies of the Journals of February 13th and 14th, each in reference to the death of the late Gov. Hicks, be printed for the use of the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Tome,

The Senate was called and the Sergeant-at-Arms sent to notify the absent Senators that their attendance was required in the Senate Chamber, who returned and reported that the absent Senators could not be found.

The Senate resumed the considerations of the unfinished business of this morning, being the reports of the committee on Elections.

Mr. Clarke moved that the vote be taken upon the minority report.

Mr. Ohr raised the question upon the right of the Senator from Howard to vote.

The Chair decided he had not the right to vote.

The question upon the adoption of the minority report,

Was then determined in the negative by yeas and nays as follow:
